

HAVE YOUR SAY

ARE YOU A DISABLED PERSON LIVING IN THE LONDON BOROUGH OF RICHMOND?

Tell us what is important to you!

In addition to providing services, Ruils Independent Living supports disabled people to have their voice heard and make change happen.

We run 2 user-led groups to give you the space to share the issues affecting you: Your Say and the Richmond Transport & Mobility Forum.

Join us to:

- ✓ Meet new people and be involved in the community
- ✓ Share your experiences in a safe and confidential environment
- ✓ Work with your peers to come up with solutions to problems facing D/deaf and disabled people
- ✓ Speak directly with decision makers about what needs to change

Your Say

Are you feeling the effects of the cost of living crisis? Maybe you have issues with housing and benefits? Are you experiencing barriers to accessing healthcare? Or maybe something else?

Come along to Your Say to share your experiences and work alongside peers to campaign for change. From best practice campaigns to in person protests, there are lots of ways to get involved.

Meetings take place every last Thursday of the month at the Ruils Office in Teddington: The DAAC, 4 Waldegrave Road, Teddington TW11 8HT

Upcoming Meetings

- 25 January from 2:00 - 3:30 pm
